A Grand old Poem.

Who shall judge a man from manners?
Who shall know him by his dress?
Paupers may be fit for princes—
Princes fit for something less.
Crumpled shirt and dirty jacket
May bechothe the golden ore
Of the deepest thought and feeling—
Satin vests could do no more.

There are springs of crystal nectar
Ever welling out of stone;
There are purple buds, and golden,
Hidden, crushed, and overgrown.
God, who counts by souls, not dresses,
Loves and prospers you and me,
While he values thrones the highest,
But as pebbles in the sea.

Man, upraise I above his fellows,
Oft forgets his fellows them,
Masters, rulers, lords, remember
That your meanest minds are men—
Men by labor, men by feeling,
Men by thought and men by fame—
Claiming equal rights to sunshine
In man's ennobling name.

There are foam-embroidered oceans,
There are little weed-clad rills;
There are feeble inch-high saplings,
There are cedars on the hills.
God, who counts by souls, not stations,
Loves and prospers you and me,
For to him all vain distinctions
Are as pebbles in the sea.

Toiling hands alone are builders
Of a nation's wealth or fame;
Titled laziness is pensioned,
Fed and fattened on the same—
By the sweat of others' foreheads,
Living only to rejoice,
While the poor man's outraged freedom
Vainly lifted up his voice.

Truth and justice are eternal—
Born with loveliness and light;
Secret wrongs shall never prosper
While there is a sunny right.
God, whose world-heard voice is singing
Boundless love to you and me,
Sinks oppression with its titles
As the pebbles in the sea.

FAITHFUL DEALING.—Wesley, once dining with a respectable local preacher, on perceiving him about to prepare a little brandy and water, with an air of surprise cried:

"What, my brother, what's that?"

"It is brandy," said his host: "my digestion is so bad that I am obliged to take a little after dinner."

"How much do you take?" said Wesley; "let me see."

"Only about a table spoonful."

"Truly," said Wesley, "that is not much; but one table-spoonful will soon lose its effect and then you will take two; from two you will get to a full glass; and that, in like manner, by habituating yourself to it, will lose its effect, and then you will take two glasses, and so on till, in the end, perhaps, you will become a drunkard. O, my brother, take care what you do."

Happy had it been for that man if he had taken the timely warning of his faithful friend. But, alas! he trifled with his little drops until he became a drunkard and ruined his reputation.

SILENCE IN COURT.—We understand that while a justice in a neighboring township was holding court the other day, one of the parties in a case under consideration becoming rather profane in his denunciation of the opposite party, as well as offensive personally to his Honor, the justice came down from his seat of dignity, and seizing the offender by the nape of the neck, gave him a severe beating, and then pitched him through a window. Resuming his seat, the justice called the next case, and went on as if nothing had occurred to disturb his official equanimity.—Charlestown Spirit of Jefferson.

OBJECTION 1.

I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.

ANSWER.

If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.

OBJECTION 2.

I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.

ANSWER.

Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.

OBJECTION 3.

I can't make up my mind; call again.

ANSWER.

Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense to answer this for yourself, aided by

THREE PRACTICAL REFLECTIONS.

FIRST.—Nothing is so uncertain as Life.
SECOND.—No provision is perfect that is contingent upon the duration of your life, which is not immediate.
THIRD.—The only immediate provision is that provided by Life Insurance.

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.
The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or south.
The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.
The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.
Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.
Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.
No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

Orphans of Confederate Soldiers.
REFERENCES:

"COLUMBIA, Oct. 19, 1866.

MISS M. A. BUIE, SO FAVORABLY KNOWN during the war as the "Soldier's Friend," is engaged in the attempt to found a School for the orphan children of Southern Soldiers. She proposes that contributions for this purpose should be placed in the hands of some gentlemen of this State, to be appointed by the Governor, and that the School shall be located in some desirable portion of the South. I commend this laudable undertaking to all charitable persons, and I wish that the amplest success may reward the patriotic efforts of Miss Buie.
WADE HAMPTON."

Miss Buie begs the co-operation of all persons to aid her in this enterprise to educate and make good and useful thousands. All donations must be paid to the Treasurers appointed by the two Governors.—Gov. Worth says:

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Saturday Evening, March 2, 1867.

Sentinel Enlarged.

To redeem a pledge which we made some time since, but which we have been prevented from doing earlier, on account of the constant pressure upon us during the session of the Legislature, we shall issue the Sentinel in its enlarged form on Tuesday evening next. On this account we shall not be able to issue the Daily on Monday evening next.

The Fire!

Our citizens were awaked this morning, about 3 o'clock, with the alarm of fire. It was soon found to be the Exchange Hotel, one of the most popular public houses in the South. The fire originated in the cooking department, or laundry, attached to the building, whether by accident or rather carelessness, or by an incendiary, is not known. The general opinion, however, inclines to the conclusion, that it was the result of carelessness or want of prudence in the servants.

Almost immediately upon the discovery of the fire the flames spread so rapidly, that in the confusion and excitement among so many on the premises, nothing could be done towards arresting the flames. Every one looked to the safety of himself and his trunks, &c. A number of members of the Legislature and others were boarding at the Hotel, who were turned out doors almost without warning. The flames swept in every direction through the centre and both wings of the large building, bidding defiance to all opposition. The boarders generally saved their clothing, trunks, &c., but the proprietors lost much of their clothing and that of their families. About one-fourth or one third of the furniture was saved but much of it damaged.

The "Episcopal Methodist" was printed in a building adjoining the Hotel, which was destroyed, but by great effort, the type, press and fixtures were all saved. It will not cause any suspension in the publication of that paper.

The wind set in strongly from the South and Southwest, and it was with the greatest difficulty that the dwellings of Messrs. C. W. D. Hutchings, P. Cowper, Misses Hinton and Mrs. Boylan, could be saved. The intrepidity of a colored man, John R. Caswell, with the aid of Capt. Gorman, put a stop to the raging fire, by checking it after the roof of Mrs. Boylan's house, now occupied by Capt. Lee, proprietor of the Excelsior Club House, was in flames. Capt. Gorman we learn, cut through the roof, there being no other way of getting up, and Caswell with his bucket, rushed out and at considerable hazard extinguished the flames. Others were there aiding whose names we have not heard.—Stopping the flames at the Excelsior House at that juncture prevented the spread of the fire.

The dwelling of C. W. D. Hutchings, Esq., was saved by strong effort. We regret to learn that a colored man, whose name we have not heard, fell from the roof of this dwelling and broke his arm. Mr. W. L. Pomeroy and others, we are told, were mainly instrumental in saving Mr. Cowper's fine dwelling. Mr. Clawson and others, we are told, worked manfully, and saved the Misses Hinton's dwelling. The members of the newly formed Fire and Hook and Ladder Companies all exerted themselves, without the aid of the necessary implements or properly furnished engines. Both white and colored seemed to do what they could, and we rejoice that the damage is no greater.

The Hotel was insured to the amount of $15,000 and the furniture at $5,000, in some four or five companies North and South. The loss on Mr. Cunningim, the proprietor, will not be as severe, therefore, as was anticipated. Mr. Blair's loss, we judge, will be considerable, as he was interested in the furniture, provisions, &c., and for a short time thrown out of business, but his eminent qualifications as a Hotel keeper, will soon enable him to be on his feet again.—The excellent proprietor of the Yarboro' House, Mr. Riddick, we learn, generously tendered to Mr. Blair and his family a home at the Yarboro', until he could make more suitable arrangements.

The loss of the Exchange is a public loss.—It had become a fixture of the city, of which we were proud.

The Homestead Bill.

Several errors occurred in the Homestead bill in enrolling it, and those errors had crept into the certified copy which we published a few days ago. It has since been corrected, and we therefore, republish it to-day.

THE VETO MESSAGE.—Much anxiety is felt in reference to the course the President will take in regard to the Sherman bill. It will be seen that the President sent in his veto at 2 o'clock, P. M. to-day.

The military reconstruction bill will not only exclude the ten Southern States from the Union for an indefinite period, but it will further depress the industrial interests of the South. Northern capital will not be trusted in States which are under the government of freedmen, sustained by martial law. The bill gives the political power in the ten States to the freedmen, and this will certainly tend to render them insubordinate and idle, and hopeful of ultimate support from a division of the lands of their late owners among them, which they have expected. Such Northern or foreign capital as may be employed in the South will be speedily withdrawn in this state of things. Besides the resentments of the Southern people may be aroused to such a point, by federal oppression, as to lead to future collisions and outbreaks, and impose upon the Government the necessity of a large standing army, costing at least two or three hundred millions a year—an expenditure which the Treasury cannot afford. The prejudicial effect of the reconstruction schemes upon Northern commerce and production is everywhere visible already, and will be greatly increased.

It is idle to talk of tariffs, of revenue incomes, of banks, or of currency, while the Government is on the eve of anarchy, and the Treasury of a great collapse. Gold must rise, and not from any present inflation of the currency, but from an apprehension of anarchy and bankruptcy.—National Intelligencer.

The Reconstruction Bill.

The following remarks from the Old North State correspond with our own, with slight exceptions. If a State Convention be called at all, as we believe is a settled point, let it be a regular and properly authorized State Convention, called by the Legislature, and for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the Sherman bill, if it become a law. But we conceive it premature for the Legislature to call a Convention until the bill becomes a law. The body ought to adjourn on Monday and let the Governor and Council call it back as soon as may be necessary, giving the members of the Assembly some short time to consult the people. This is our judgment as a matter of policy. Not that we would take such a course as a matter of choice. But we conceive no choice is left us, except a choice between evils: either to submit to a Convention regularly called, which would do precisely what the Congress demands in this bill, as an expressed condition of reconstruction, or submit to such a Convention irregularly called as would not only do what the Congress demands, but which would go a bow-shot further. Let our people take warning from the condition of Tennessee. The Old North State says:

We gave the comments of a Republican paper on Tuesday showing the destructive character of the bill. But what sort of government we shall really have under the law depends upon the manner in which it shall be executed. The Brigadier General commanding the District may, if he chooses to do so, govern through the existing State organization—there is nothing in the law requiring him to dispense with it so long as it administers justice impartially between all parties, all classes and all conditions in our State. This it will do. No State was ever blessed with a more just, more upright and more impartial judiciary than ours. The General commanding, whoever he may be, will soon learn, if he be wise, that in no way can he administer justice so well as through our civil courts, and through these he will administer it. The prohibitions in the law do not apply to persons already in office, but only as to the elegibility of those to be elected hereafter. Consequently our judges will remain in office, at least until after a reorganization of the State government shall take place, if it does take place, as we suppose it will.

Whether any steps will be taken to test the Supreme Court of the United States we cannot tell. We see that some of our exchanges advise such a course, but the modus operandi has not, so far as we have seen, been pointed out. As the Supreme Court has original jurisdiction in all cases where a State is a party, some one of the Southern States—for the Court has repeatedly recognized them as States—may possibly appear in that Court by Counsel and make application for an injunction against the Executive Department of the Government to prevent its execution upon the ground that it is unconstitutional. The principle involved in this case has already been decided by that tribunal in the celebrated mandamus Case of Marbury vs. Madison, Chief Justice Marshall delivering the opinion. In that case the Court held, if we are not mistaken, that a writ of mandamus would lie against the President of the United States. The only difference between a writ of mandamus and a writ of injunction is that the one commands him to do a particular thing, while the other commands him not to do a particular thing. So, it must be apparent to all, that the principle in each case is the same.

We do not, however, believe that any such measures are likely to be taken, or if taken that they will prove effective. In either event we have very clear ideas as to what course our Legislature ought to take. It should not adjourn without calling a Convention to meet in August or September next. If it does some other way will be found out by which a Convention can be assembled, and it will be assembled. But it is useless for us to give our opinion as to what course should be pursued in this emergency—we are not "a representative man" and our Councils will not be heeded.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

EVENING SESSION.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, March 1.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Resolution providing for the call of a national Convention was taken up, with the substitute offered by Mr. Speed.

Mr. Avery moved to postpone its further consideration until to-morrow night at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Love called for the ayes and nays, and the motion to postpone was rejected.

Mr. Speed withdrew his substitute.

The question recurring on the adoption of the original resolution, the ayes and nays were called and the resolutions were adopted, ayes 29, nays 6; to wit: Messrs. Bullock, Cardwell, Harris of Rutherford, Respass, Richardson, and Thompson.

Resolution in favor of J. M. Neal, late Sheriff of McDowell County, came up.

The amendment offered by Mr. Perkins was rejected. Mr. Speed then offered an amendment which was agreed to and the resolution passed.

Bill to be entitled "an act giving County and Superior Courts authority to sentence criminals to work on public roads," passed its second reading. Mr. Ferebee was opposed to the bill; thought it would be the means of creating unnecessary expenses, and on its third reading, on his motion, the ayes and nays were called, and the bill passed by 27 to 7.

On motion of Mr. Harris, of Franklin, the rules were suspended, and the bill to incorporate the town of Columbia, in the County of Tyrrell, was taken up and passed its several readings.

Mr. Leach, by leave, introduced a bill authorizing the call of a Convention of the people of the State.

Mr. Cowles moved to postpone its further consideration until to-morrow at 11 o'clock. Not agreed to. On the passage of the bill, on its first reading, the ayes and nays were called and resulted as follows; but there not being a two thirds vote of the Senate, the bill failed:

YEAS.—Messrs. Adams, Avery, Barnes, Berry, Brown, Bullock, Cardwell, Clark, Covington, Cunningham, Ferebee, Gash, Harris, of Franklin, Hill, Leach, Love, Lloyd, Matthews, McCorkle, McLean, McRae, Respass, Rollins, Speed, Thompson, Thornton, and Willey—27.

NAYS.—Messrs. Battle, Cowles, Etheridge, Harris, of Rutherford, Jones, Moore, Outlaw, Richardson and Wiggins—9.

On motion of Mr. Cardwell the rules were suspended, and a bill to incorporate the Rockingham and Henry Railroad Company, was taken up and passed its several readings.

A message was received from the House transmitting a bill amendatory to an act to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and the rules of pleading therein, with amendments, which were concurred in.

On motion of Mr. Avery the rules were suspended and the bill supplementory to an act to incorporate the North Western Railroad Company, was taken up and passed.

Mr. Covington introduced a resolution proposing to rescind so much of the joint order on adjournment as pertains to the reassembling of the General Assembly on the 1st of August.

Mr. Leach moved to lay the resolution on the table, which was agreed to.

And on motion of Mr. Bullock, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

The House then adjourned.

SENATE.

SATURDAY MORNING, March 2.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock. Prayer by the Rev. Dr. Smedes, of the Episcopal Church.

A message was received from the House transmitting a resolution in favor of the late Sheriff of Currituck County. On motion of Mr. Avery, the rules were suspended and the resolution passed its several readings. Also, a message proposing to rescind so much of the joint order relative to adjournment as provides for the reassembling of the General Assembly in August next. Mr. Wiggins moved that the Senate do not concur. Upon this motion the ayes and nays were called, and the Senate refused to concur by a vote of 16 to 9.

Mr. Leach introduced a resolution in favor of the Hon. David Outlaw, which passed its several readings.

The calendar was taken up and a large number of private bills were disposed of. A special notice of them is unnecessary as the captions will soon supply the public with all desired information.

Mr. Manly, the Senator from Craven, sent in a communication to the Senate, resigning his seat as a member of that body.

Mr. Leach offered a resolution authorizing a writ of election to the Sheriff of Craven, to fill the vacancy. Adopted.

FROM WASHINGTON.

News and Gossip.

THE FORTHCOMING VETOES.

Washington leter writers announce that at a late hour Wednesday night the President was engaged in the preparation of his veto message upon the military government reconstruction bill. The message, it is said, will be quite lengthy and principally devoted to the legal features of the bill. The tone of the message is firm and respectful. The veto of the tenure of office bill will accompany that of the military bill. In this case, beside objecting to the House amendment, including members of Cabinet in the category of other Federal officers, the President objects to the bill because it makes the tenure of other officers during good behavior or for life.

The section in the army bill which provides that the headquarters of the general shall not be removed from Washington, that all orders shall emanate from the general, &c., is regarded as unconstitutional, and there is no doubt that that bill will be vetoed on these grounds.

SURRATT.

The latest and most interesting event in the prison life of Surratt was the attempt made on Tuesday by a man to obtain admittance to the prisoner, alleging that he was his brother, just arrived from Texas, where he had been living for the past ten or twelve years. He did not prove his relationship, however, to the satisfaction of the guards, and admission was denied. Miss Surratt does everything in her power for the comfort of her unhappy brother, and is humanely permitted by Warden Brown to give him a few things not contained in the jail bill of fare. The effect of his sister's devoted attentions and presence are visible in the young man's improved condition.

NEW CONGRESS.

When it assembles on the 4th of March (Monday next,) the new Congress will be without members from Connecticut, California, Kentucky, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, and Tennessee. The present Congress has 184 members; 29 of these seats in the new Congress will be vacant on the 4th of March, by reason of the States above named not yet having held their elections. Of course the Southern States will, as now, be unrepresented. It is supposed that after a session of a week or two an adjournment will take place until the middle of May, by which time elections will have been held in Connecticut, New Hampshire, and Rhode Island. Sun.

The following is from the correspondence of the Baltimore Gazette:

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

The House this morning was opened by a characteristic prayer from the Rev. Mr. Boynton. This presumptuous old man is in the constant habit of appealing to the Deity specially to interfere in extricating the House from the muddles they get into. On this occasion he invoked Divine aid in thrusting through the tariff. On other occasions he has had the temerity, in a roundabout way, to assure the Deity that he might always be sure to be right when following the lead of Thad. Stevens and by sustaining the previous question it moved by that immaculate Christian and patriot.

It is stated here, with confidence, that a scheme with extensive ramifications has been concocted in the Senate, by which the State of Maryland is to be cheated out of any choice of Senator for the present. The plan seems to be this: Governor Swann's credentials (should he not resign) to be referred to the Committee on Elections, there to sleep until the adjournment of your Legislature, when the acting Governor is to commission Creswell. The course Governor Swann has indicated will checkmate this nefarious project, and it was the only one that promised success.

Senator Johnson, I understand, is himself not satisfied of the sufficiency of the reasons assigned for his recent extraordinary vote. He will avail himself of the earliest opportunity (probably that to be furnished by the expected veto) to announce, at large, the motives that impelled him to the course he has adopted. His expose is awaited with much curiosity.

I observe that the New York World and other Northern papers are "hesitating" as to what advice to give the South in the present emergency, although they declare that the infamous Sherman Blaine-Shellabarger-Wilson bill should rightfully be resisted by force. Did it never enter into the noddles of these advisers of the recent slave-holding States that the people of the South have a tolerably clear idea of their duties and obligations to themselves and of their altered relations to the General Government? They have nevertheless, in some instances, surrendered their convictions in deference to those of the North whom they regarded as friends, and in every such case they have been left in the lurch when the time of trial arrived. This has been keenly felt, and the incertitude and anxiety of the World and such prints as to what advice to give, when to give it, or whether to give any at all, may very well be suffered to simmer down into a quiescent conclusion, that advice from such quarters, at least for the present, can be dispensed with, and especially if unaccompanied by reliable assurances of corresponding practical support.

THE TARIFF BILL.—Considering the very few days which remain of this Congress, and the large amount of other intervening business to be transacted, the present indications are the bill will fail to become a law.

GENERAL GRANT'S POSITION.—The Washington correspondent of the Boston Advertiser writes as follows in his letter of the 25th instant:

"The fate of the reconstruction bill at the hands of the President is not yet certain, though the prevalent opinion is that a veto will be sent in to-morrow, or on the following day at the furthest. General Grant does not hesitate to say very frankly and pointedly that it would be advisable for the President to give it his signature. At an interview with the Secretary of the Treasury this morning, he asked the Secretary what the President would do with it; would he sign it? The Secretary evasively answered that he did not know. The President had not said what course he would pursue. The General remarked with much earnestness: "I hope he will sign it. I think it would be well for him to do so." The Secretary again said he could not tell what the President's purpose was, adding: "he takes time to look into the whole question before acting." General Grant thereupon responded: "Do you think he is open to conviction? Would my opinion have any weight with him? I don't want to bore him if he has reached his decision, but I very much hope he will sign the bill." Some further conversation was had, showing General Grant's strong desire for harmonious action between the President and Congress. Whether he took occasion to see the President on the subject is not known."

WHAT THE RADICALS WILL DO.

The Baltimore American of Tuesday said:

"The loyal people intend to purify the institutions of this great republic. They have resolved upon this, not only as a measure of abstract propriety, but of political and national safety. In this they will not be hindered by the Supreme Court or any other branch of the Government. The people are the Government—the controlling power. The Judges, like the President, are the mere instruments through whom they work. All must yield by some means or other, sooner or later, to the deliberately formed judgment and definitively expressed by the people."

And the Gazette of Wednesday commented as follows:

"So passes away the Constitution of the United States, and with it constitutional government and civil liberty. Millions of men on this continent to day stand as completely divested of political rights and the protection of any laws as ever did the liege subjects of any absolute monarch on earth. Into the future we shrink from gazing. Confiscation and Rapine, Ruin and Confusion, must soon begin their ruthless work, and when and where they will complete it, no man may know."

A Washington correspondent writes:

General Grant, in private conversation yesterday, expressed the opinion that the Military bill does not confer any more power upon the military than it was authorized to assume under the Civil Rights Bill. The Military bill, as at first reported, he was wholly opposed to; and in its present modified form he finds much to criticise.

EXCITING SCENE IN THE SENATE—ABUSE OF SECRETARY M'CULLOCH.

Quite an exciting scene occurred in the Senate Wednesday night, on the amendment of the Finance Committee to the civil appropriation bill, providing for the payment of assistant assessors of the internal revenue, appointed in the Southern States by Secretary McCulloch, and who were unable to take the test oath.

Mr. Sumner, who has a personal pique against the Secretary, led off in the attack, and charged that official with uttering a falsehood in stating that loyal men could not be found capable of filling these positions. Congress was too patient with the Secretary, he declared, and should censure him in the strongest manner. Mr. Sherman, in advocating the amendment, he said, was covering up a crime committed by the Secretary in his madness, and to carry out the insane reconstruction policy of the master whom he served.

Mr. Sherman passionately retorted that the language of the Senator was neither parliamentary nor gentlemanly, but it was false.

Mr. Chandler, who has been rather quiet since his great impeachment speech, seized the opportunity to pour forth his wrath, and echoing the charge of crime against Mr. McCulloch, insisted that he ought to be brought to the bar of the Senate for trial. The Secretary, he thought, should be punished, but these men who had done the work should be paid. Mr. Sumner here repeatedly interrupted him by saying, "Let him pay them out of his own pocket," when Mr. Chandler turned round, amidst the laughter of the galleries, and sneeringly said, "He is a pauper; he cannot pay."

Mr. Trumbull rehearsed the wailings of the Southern loyalists at being excluded from office for the benefit of rebels, and Mr. Sumner again indulged in a violent tirade against the Secretary of the Treasury, and threatened, that before long, he would have an opportunity to sum up more fully the catalogue of his shortcomings.

Mr. Chandler, not to be outdone, indulged in the lowest personalities on the character and capacity of Mr. McCulloch, which Mr. Fessenden afterwards characterized as "foul-mouthed abuse, and language to which he could not condescend to reply."

The Homestead Act.

AN ACT TO BE ENTITLED "AN ACT TO ESTABLISH FREEHOLD HOMESTEADS FOR THE CITIZENS OF THE STATE, AND TO EXEMPT CERTAIN PERSONAL PROPERTY FROM EXECUTION."

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for any citizen of the State, who is possessed of a freehold of lands within the same, to file his petition in the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the County—where the land lies, praying for the allotment of a homestead therefrom not exceeding one hundred acres if in the county, or one acre if in the City or town, which allotment may include a single dwelling and the necessary outhouses, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the Court, to appoint five freeholders to lay off and allot to the petitioner said homestead, by metes and bounds according to their discretion, make a descriptive account of the same under their hands and seals, and return it to the Court at its next session.

Provided, That if any building, other than the necessary outhouses or houses belonging to the cartilege shall be erected on any part of said homestead in a town or city, then so much of the land as is covered by said buildings, shall not be exempt longer from execution under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 2. That upon the return, as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to record it upon the minutes, and to make out and deliver to the Register of the county, a copy thereof, who shall register the same in his books, making a memorandum of the time when it is done at the foot of the registration, for which services, these officers shall be entitled to the fees fixed by law in similar cases.

SEC. 3. That the homestead, so laid off and registered, shall not be subject to execution for any debt contracted, or cause of action, or other liability, save taxes accruing, after the same is registered. Provided, Said homestead shall not be exempt from execution, for any debt or cause of action arising upon any penal bond or covenant previously executed, although the same may accrue after the registration aforesaid.

SEC. 4. That if any person be taken under a capias ad satisfaciendum, sued out upon any judgment founded, or cause of action accrued subsequent to the registration aforesaid, it shall not be required of him to put the allotted homestead in his schedule of effects, or to surrender the same, Provided, This exemption shall not apply as aforesaid to process on judgment, founded on penal bonds or covenants previously executed, although the causes of action did not accrue till after the registration.

SEC. 5. That no male person in lawful wedlock have power to sell or dispose of a homestead so set apart without the concurrence of his wife, evidenced by deed, executed and verified with the same formalities that may be required by law to convey the lands of femes covert.

SEC. 6. That in all cases where a homestead freehold is laid off under the provisions of this act, from an estate descendable to heirs, and the wife survives, she shall be entitled to the said homestead for dower, if she shall so elect, to be allotted to her in the manner now provided by law; subject nevertheless to the condition that if she marry again, there being a child or children of the issue of her first husband, she shall take one third of the same only, including the dwelling. Provided, That the homestead provided for in the foregoing sections shall not be exempt from debts incurred for making improvements thereon or cultivating the same.—Provided, further, That such exemption shall continue after the death of such householder or householders, for the benefit of the children, as a home, until the youngest child shall become twenty-one years of age.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That the following property of each head of a family, or housekeeper, shall be exempt from execution, except for taxes after the ratification of this act, to wit: all necessary farming and mechanical tools, one work horse, one yoke of oxen, one cart or wagon, one milk cow and calf, fifteen head of hogs, five hundred pounds of pork or bacon, fifty bushels of corn, twenty bushels of wheat or rice, and household and kitchen furniture not to exceed in value two hundred dollars; also, the libraries of licensed attorneys at law, practicing physicians and ministers of the Gospel, and the instruments of surgeons and dentists used in their professions.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
DEPARTMENT OF STATE.
RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 26, 1867.

I, R. W. Best, Secretary of State, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of original on file in this office.

Given under my hand, this 26th day of February 1867.

R. W. BEST, Secretary of State.

AN ACT.

To Protect Property sold under Execution from Sacrifice.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all cases where property shall be offered and exposed to public auction at execution sale, whether such execution issue from a Justice of the Peace, or from any of the said courts of said State; before such sale shall take place it shall be the duty of the Sheriff or other officer having the execution or executions to summon a Justice of the Peace and two freeholders, in every case of such execution, when required to do so by the defendant, his attorney or agent, to be and appear on the day of sale, at the place of sale, and the said Justice of the Peace, shall administer to the said freeholders the following oath: I, ——, do solemnly swear that I am unconnected with both plaintiff and defendant in this execution, that I am without prejudice towards either of the parties, and that I will view and examine in every case of such execution when required so to do, the prosperity of the defendant, and assess at cash valuation each article of said property, impartially and to the best of my judgement and belief, so help me God.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, That should said freeholders be unable to agree as to the value of all, or any of said property of said defendant, so levied on, that it shall be the duty of said Justice to act as umpire, and when such assessment and valuation shall be agreed upon, it shall be the duty of said freeholder to report the same to said officer, in writing, signed with their names, specifying therein the cash value of each article of property levied on, of every character whatever, and it shall be the duty of said officer to return such inventory with said valuation, with the papers in the case.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That if any land or other article of property so assessed, shall be offered for sale under any execution or writ of fieri facias or venditioni exponas or decree for sale, and shall not bring three fourths of its appraised value, that fact shall be taken and deemed by the sheriff or other officer, in whose hands the process may be, to be conclusive evidence of a want of fair competition among bidders, and of an unjust sacrifice of the property to the detriment of both the debtor and creditor, and it shall in that case, be the duty of the sheriff or other officer to forbear the sale of said property, and return the process to the court from which it issued at its succeeding term; or if from a justice of the peace, then before some justice of the peace, within sixty days, with an endorsement of the facts, and "no sale, for the want of fair competition among bidders," whereupon alias process may issue, and the property shall be again advertised and offered for sale, and if, again, it shall not bring three-fourths of its value, as appraised aforesaid, the sheriff or other officer shall make a similar return, and so continue from term to term, until there shall be sufficient competition among bidders to produce a fair sale.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That said justice and freeholders shall be entitled to and shall receive from said defendant, one dollar each, for every day they may be engaged in making said valuation.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That all laws and clauses of laws, coming in conflict with this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Ratified this 26th February, 1867.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, March 1.

The House was in Committee of the whole on the deficiency bill. It involves $11,500,000.—The details elicited a heated debate. A provision was adopted allowing nothing on claims of participants in the rebellion. The appropriation for the White House was rejected. An amendment appropriating $50,000 to Liberia was offered. A proposition to withhold it until white men are allowed to vote in Liberia, created mirth. The whole matter was postponed.

In the Senate the President's veto of the Colorado bill was considered. The bill passed notwithstanding, yeas 29, nays 19.

The following Senators voted in the negative: Buckalew, Cowan, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Edmunds, Fessenden, Foster, Grimes, Harris, Hendricks, Johnson, McDougall, Morgan, Nesmith, Norton, Patterson and Saulsbury.

The tax bill was resumed.

The amendment removing the Cotton tax was lost by a tie vote. It was finally fixed at two cents.

WE OFFER TO THE PUBLIC THIS CELEBRATED Oil, and in doing so we unhesitatingly pronounce it SUPERIOR TO ANY BURNING OIL IN USE. It is Non-Explosive. Free from Grease. It will not grease the hands. It will not soil or grease the clothing. It is more brilliant than Gas. It produces a soft and beautiful light. It is not so trying to the eyes. It can be used in any Kerosene Lamp by adopting our LIGHT HOUSE OR RATCHET BURNERS.

It has been most favorably received, and pronounced by judges to be the

THE BEST AND MOST RELIABLE OIL

now in the market; and in consequence of the many serious accidents arising from the EXPLOSION OF KEROSENE, this Oil is extensively known and used in preference.

We are now prepared to furnish the trade with this valuable Oil, and we solicit from the public an examination and trial.

We have on hand a large stock of

LAMPS, BURNERS, CHIMNEYS, WICKS, &c.,

and can supply the trade on liberal terms.

First Premium Awarded at the Louisiana State Fair held in New Orleans, from Nov. 20th, to 27th, 1866, against all Competitors.

PERUVIAN GUANO SUBSTITUTE!

BAUGH'S

RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

TRADE MARK

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1851 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

☞ Sold by Dealers in all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States and British Provinces.

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron (Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)	36.80
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

We refer to the following gentlemen who tested its merits last season:

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

The "Ætna Life Co., in loosing $25,000 the past year has relieved want—and now with over $4,000,000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on 1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.
